Celebrating Black History Month...

Every Thursday Morning at 11:00am

The UNCIVIL Podcast

Join us as we listen to and discuss untold stories of the Civil War. Experience exciting stories about resistance, covert operations, corruption, mutiny, counterfeiting, and daring heroism while connecting these forgotten struggles to our current racial and political landscape.

Every Thursday Afternoon at 2:00pm

Black America Since MLK: ...And Still I Rise

We embark on a personal journey through the last 50 years of Black history. Joined by leading scholars & a dynamic cast of people who shaped these years, Henry Louis Gates Jr. travels from the civil rights movement up to today, asking profound questions about the state of black America—and the entire nation.

Wednesday, February 5th at 3:30pm

The History of African-American Music

Historian and musician Marc Ferris shares his expertise in the progression of African-American music: from the interaction with church music in the American South to the development of Jazz and finally to the contemporary sounds of modern popular music.

Wednesday, February 26th at 3:30pm

Excerpts from the New York Times' 1619 Project

This Kittay tenant-directed program will bring the NYT's "1619 Project" to life through dramatic readings of poetry, essays, and new historical research regarding the breadth and depth of African-American culture's contribution to the U.S.
